

Rolling Faculty recruitment Policy
Pandit Deendayal Petroleum University

Raisan, Gandhinagar

At Pandit Deendayal Petroleum University we have adopted a rolling faculty recruitment policy, under which though the University may announce vacancies from time to time on its website besides accredited media, it encourages all qualified persons to apply for a suitable faculty positions in any of its following Schools :

- School of Petroleum Management
- School of Technology
- School of Petroleum Technology
- School of Solar Energy
- School of Liberal Studies
- School of Nuclear Energy

The applications received in response to the position announcement will be processed after the announced last date for the application is over and short listed candidates will be considered for the selection process.

The applications received for positions not announced on our website, will also be processed periodically based on the merit of the application and University needs. The selection process may be started as and when a match between the merit of the application and the university needs is found.

In either the case the selection process will be conducted as per the rules of the University
